House flooded by burst water main

OWNERS ACCUSE SOUTH WEST WATER OF 'NEGLIGENCE'

A LYME Regis couple are accusing South West Water of negligence after their flat was flooded by a disconnected water main.

The drama unfolded in Summerhill Road around 6.30pm on Saturday evening when resident Lee Demkiw noticed running water outside number 41, the home of former town councillor Peter Williams and his wife, Shirley.

Mrs Williams was out at the time, singing in a choir at a Rotary Club event in Axminster. Mr Williams, who is confined to a wheelchair, was watching television in a back room and was unaware of the flooding.

An emergency call was put into South West Water who said they would respond within three hours.

By this time the water pipes in a neighbouring property, occupied by Lyme Regis Town Council administrative officer Vickie Stickler, started banging and her father, who was staying with her, looked out the window and saw water running down their path.

As there was no car outside the Williams' house, Ms Stickler thought no one was at home and contacted town councillor Anita Williams, Mrs and Williams' neice, and her husband Keith, who live in Uplyme, and their daughter Jen.

They immediately drove to Summerhill Road by which time water was running in torrents towards the Williams' house so another call was put into South West Water and an inspector arrived at around 9 pm. The inspector said he did not think the flooding was serious and they would deal with it the next day (Sunday).

Like an ocean

Efforts were made to divert water from the front of the Williams' house using planks of wood but to no avail.

By this time water had started to enter the Williams' house through the front French doors, flooding the hall and a bedroom, saturating the carpets.

Anita Williams phoned South West Water again and the inspector and a gang from Balfour Beatty arrived at 10.50pm.

Mrs Shirley Williams told the View from Lyme Regis: "I arrived home from the choir concert about 10.20pm and noticed the water running down Summerhill into King's Way and down to the shop in Staples Ter-

Born in Dorchester in 1963, Caroline Paul was just 18 months old when her family moved to a run-down 300-year-old property near Cerne Abbas. Nearly 50 years later, Caroline still lives there with her parents and teenage son, running it as Giants Head Caravan & Camping Park – a “rural touring park for healthy walking types.” Leaving behind a career as an independent financial advisor, Caroline began running Treasure Trails Dorset five years ago.

WHAT are treasure trails?

There are more than 55 walking, driving, cycling and bus treasure trails across Dorset. Each trail has clues that you need to find and solve to lead you around a route.

They are designed to show you the best historic and picturesque sights of a location, whilst entertaining the whole family at once. The trails involve either solving a murder mystery, following a treasure hunt or carrying out a 'James Bond' style spy mission. Each answer eliminates a suspect or a location until you are left with just one – the whodunnit, the location of the hidden treasure or the code to deactivate the device.

They are award-winning activities that get the whole family out and about exploring.

HOW did you get involved with them?

I first met Steve Ridd, who started Treasure Trails in Cornwall, at an air show in 2004. Steve stood out because of his lively, fun attitude. I bought a couple of trails and both were fantastic. Steve emailed me a few months later to say he was looking for someone to write trails in Dorset and would I be interested. As my parents were getting a bit older I thought it would be a great thing for me to do, to reduce my hours as a financial adviser and work from home writing the trails while helping them with the holiday park.

HAVE you always enjoyed walks and the countryside?

I have always been a country girl and have always loved the countryside. My favourite trails are those that explore some of the lesser-known villages. I love to find out all I can about the history, local stories and any gossip from the locals.

HOW do people respond to the walks?

I do get some great feedback from Trailers. Here are a few: “Absolutely fantastic! This is the third one I have done with the kids, fabulous!” (Swanage 4 Kids Trail). “Did it with friends on a brief holiday in Weymouth and they loved it – saw things we would normally miss!” (Weymouth Town). “A lovely way of exploring different places and noticing things overlooked before.” (Bridport Town)

HAS anyone got horribly lost following your clues?

Not that I am aware of – or maybe they are still lost! After I have written the trails I always, without exception have someone else to check them. I give them the trail and I follow behind with a clipboard taking notes just in case I have written “go left” and it should be “go right”.

HOW do you find new routes or themes?

I have so many trails that I want to write. Whenever I am out I very often divert off the main road down narrow roads looking for new places to explore, you wouldn't believe what can be hidden away. Dorset is just wonderful for all those hidden secrets. Who has lived here, who was born here and who is buried here, but I am not going to tell you any secrets, you will have to check out my trails! I also get asked by people to write new trails.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

Sometimes it is possible but in some cases although they live in a lovely part of Dorset there is just not quite enough to write a full trail, so I make a note and keep these for future driving trails.

WHAT is your favourite journey in the world?

My father had always wanted to go across the Rockies in Canada before he got too old (he's 81 now) so about five years ago I arranged for him, his older(!) brother, my son and myself to go. We went over Christmas and it was fantastic. My mother decided to stay home as she could see how much work it would be looking after two pensioners who have spent nearly 80 years squabbling (like brothers do) and a teenager. I still think this was my favourite journey.

WHO living or dead would you most like to go on a walk with?

I suppose I could be really corny and say Pierce Brosnan because he could rescue me with one of his James Bond manoeuvres but that would be fibbing. It's Pierce Brosnan because he is just gorgeous to all us middle-aged women.

WHAT would be your ideal destination after a long walk?

Back home to one of my mum's roastie dinners – yum.

DO you Sat Nav?

Only when I have to, I am a country girl and a lot of this techy stuff goes way over my head, I have only just learnt how to turn on my son's iPhone and that is as far as I have got with it.

WHAT is your earliest memory?

I can remember sitting in a pram or pushchair passing lots of metal railings. Apparently before I moved from Dorchester my mother used to walk with me by the Dorchester Hospital where there were lots of metal railings.

WHEN is the last time you had to say sorry?

Sorry, me? You've got to have done something wrong to say sorry! Only joking, probably to my son, I seem to say sorry to him every day but I really don't know why, maybe to try and keep the peace when he is having one of his teenage tantrums.

Trails can be downloaded from www.treasuretrails.co.uk or available in booklet format from Tourist Information Centres and various retail outlets or direct from Treasure Trails Dorset.

Seven chalets demolished after more slips

TOWN CLERK SAYS COUNCIL WILL HAVE TO BE 'MORE SELECTIVE' OVER SITE LICENCES

A TOTAL of seven chalets at Monmouth Beach in Lyme Regis have now had to be demolished due to landslide damage, despite original plans to take down five.

Work to demolish five of the stricken chalets began last Wednesday but, following further slips over the weekend, it was agreed to take down another two with work continuing yesterday (Tuesday) and today.

Town clerk Mike Lewis said the owners of 47 and 48 Ware Cliff had agreed to allow the same contractor, Hansford Construction Ltd., to take down their chalets after they were damaged by landslides.

Mr Lewis continued: "There has been further slips since we last reported to council. The owners of 47 and 48 Ware Cliff have been on site and have agreed that the same contractor will also demolish these chalets.

"There are implications that the slip is moving in a south-easterly direction so we are keeping an eye on this."

Mr Lewis added that, following the most recent movement, a number of chalets on the beach level would be moved forward to prevent them from being damaged.

Town and district councillor Daryl Turner has made his concerns about the demolition work known via social networking site Twitter. Councillor Turner said having heavy machinery on a landslide site was "asking for

by Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedi.co.uk

trouble".

However, the town clerk said that the weight of the machinery pushing down on the toe of the cliff actually improved stabilisation.

Mr Lewis added: "There is no other way to demolish the chalets. We have used Hansford before, they have all the knowledge and equipment, and they are doing very well down there."

In last week's View From Lyme Regis, a full report on the town council's lengthy debate on the Monmouth Beach chalets explained that six were set to lose their site licenses. However, Mr Lewis said that following further damage caused at the weekend, the council would now be "more selective" about which Ware Cliff chalets to grant licenses to.

Licenses will be granted to the Bowling Green chalets, Monmouth Beach caravans and chalets at beach level but the council will have to look again into which Ware Cliff chalets will receive licenses.

Mr Lewis said the deputy town clerk, John Wright, was currently working with West Dorset planners with a view to submit a five-year planning application for the continued use of the area as a chalet and caravan park in July, when the current permission expires.

If the application is refused because of recent landslides, the town council could lose £157,000 income a year.

Attempted theft at parish church

ST Michael's Parish Church in Lyme Regis was targeted for an attempted theft.

The incident took place between 9.07am and 10.07am on Tuesday, February 19th. An unknown offender entered the church and search around various parts of the building but nothing was taken.

He searched around the vestry, opening several drawers and attempting to break into a safe. Unusually, the offender then made himself a cup of tea before leaving.

It is thought the offender was male, wearing reddish-brown trousers and coat, brown shoes, a hat and carrying a rucksack and green plastic bag. Anyone who saw anything suspicious should contact Dorset Police on 101.

● THE Jurassic Seafood Wine Bar in Lyme Regis was also targeted by thieves with a number of bottles of wine and a laptop being stolen from the Silver Street restaurant. The theft took place overnight on Wednesday, February 13th. Entry was gained by forcing a back door open.

Guitars on the Beach

APOLOGIES for last week reporting the incorrect date for world record attempt Guitars on the Beach, for which as many guitarists as possible are being encouraged to play "Rave On" at one time.

The event will actually take place on Saturday, September 7th on Lyme Regis beach.

race. It was coming down in torrents. It was like an ocean but I did not realise until I got home that we were flooded.

"When the inspector arrived for a second time I think he realised he had made a faux pas.

"A pump was used but at one time he was trying to fill a bucket by scooping the water up in a shovel. It was quite pathetic really."

Miss Stickler said they realised something was wrong when their water pressure dropped and their pipes started making a noise.

"We opened our back door and it was like a river running past. We traced it to the top of the road outside the Williams' house where the spur had come away from the water main. We had to phone the water board every hour until they came out."

Mrs Williams said she had insurance cover and would have to get the saturated carpet replaced.

"But I will be writing to South West Water holding them responsible for negligence and I will be seeking compensation," she said.

Mrs Williams referred to Summerhill as "a brilliant community" and thanked Mr Demkiw and Miss Stickler for their assistance.

A spokesperson for South West Water said: "According to our records we responded to this burst as an emergency in less than two hours from the first call we received.

"We would be happy to meet Mr and Mrs William to discuss their concerns."

Seasalt plans for June opening

SOUTH West clothing chain Seasalt has said it hopes to open shop in Lyme Regis in June.

Lyme Regis has been expecting the opening of the Cornish clothing chain, which has 14 branches around the South West including one in Sidmouth, since last year but so far there has been no sign of an opening at 8 and 8A Broad Street - former premises of The Toby Jug.

The company has had trouble gaining planning permission for changes at the listed building and has recently submitted a revised application.

In a statement to Lyme Regis Traders Organisation, who have expressed concerns about the shop's current poor state of repair, including a smashed window, Seasalt director Leigh Chadwick said: "The current situation is that we are submitting a revised application this week so hopefully we will obtain planning permission to re-fit the shop in eight weeks time. Subject to this, we are intending to commence the re-fit work in the week commencing April 15th and we are aiming to be open to trade in early June.

"The proposed shop fit is sympathetic with the building and is relatively 'low-key'. Beyond some adaptations to the signage and a change of colour to the external joinery no works are intended to the shop frontages and the proposed changes should be without detriment to the overall setting.

"Unfortunately, the planners will not allow us to carry out any work prior to permission being granted and this includes repair of the broken shop window.

"We are obviously very keen to open our new shop and of course, in the current economic climate, to create jobs."

Councillor's call for public to help save local bus services

RESIDENTS in Bridport, Beaminster and the surrounding area are being urged to join the fight to save local bus routes.

Councillor Ros Kayes is calling for people to respond to a Dorset County Council public consultation on the future of subsidised bus services by filling in the online or paper questionnaires.

Councillor Kayes – who represents Bridport Town Council on the Western Area Transport Group – said: “It is highly likely that subsidies to services will be reduced and in some cases cut altogether as the county council aims to further reduce its expenditure in the next 12 months. But these services are a lifeline to many communities.”

A survey of over 900 people from Bridport and surrounding villages conducted last year by of the Community Health Campaign managed to reduce cuts in services at Bridport Community Hospital.

Councillor Kayes continued: “We will be seeking to present the valuable information we obtained to the county council as part of this consultation, because it also gives evidence about the ages and the income levels of service users - all of which the county council is required to take into account.

“But people must fill in the questionnaires designed by the county council too.”

Services deemed under threat include the Drimpton service, the bus between Beaminster and Bridport

Hospital, Bridport & Beaminster to Yeovil on non school days, Bridport to Catherston Leweston, Bridport to Linton Cheney and Beaminster to Weymouth two days a week.

The X53 Jurassic Coast service is also supported by council subsidies, which covers Exeter to Poole.

Councillor Kayes added: “These bus services were the reason given to justify hospital services being cut... so if we lose them it would be a travesty.”

The consultation questionnaire can be filled in at www.dorsetforyou.com/busconsultation

It is hoped that paper copies will also be made available for people who do not have access to the internet.

Doctors to take control of NHS Dorset budget

DOCTORS in Dorset have been given the green light to take control of the NHS budget in the county.

Under nationwide restructuring to shift decision-making towards doctor-led groups, the NHS Commissioning Board has authorised the NHS Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) to take over the statutory responsibility from the Primary Care Trust.

The CCG will plan and commission hospital, community health and mental health services for Dorset's 750,000 residents from April 2013.

West Dorset GP Dr Forbes Watson is chairman of NHS Dorset CCG.

He said: “Over the last year we have been working hard to demonstrate that we are ready to carry out our new role of ensuring local health needs are met and these are making a real difference for local communities.

“We are delighted that the NHS Commissioning Board has recognised our efforts and we have achieved the standards that show we are ready for this role.

“I would like to thank everyone who has been involved in the authorisation process for their efforts over the past year which has helped us to achieve this and we look forward to working with our partners to achieve our mission.”

Each of the 102 GP practices in Dorset, including Bournemouth and Poole, is a member of the CCG.

Uplyme flood solutions take a step in the right direction

UPLYME Parish Council has reported on a "very positive" meeting with Neil Parish MP to discuss recent flooding issues.

Speaking at the recent parish council meeting, Councillor Peter Whiting said he met with Mr Parish, county and district councillors and officers and, as a result, a survey of local streams and culverts was being carried out, along with designs for improved drainage.

Councillor Whiting said this was a step in the right direction, although it would be some time until funding could be found and construction could start.

A representative from the Environment Agency will be attending the next parish council meeting on March 13th to help residents and councillors develop a flood resilience plan. There will also be a drop-in session on the same day at the Scout Hut between 10.30am and 1.30pm for local residents to find out about the new flood warning system being developed for Uplyme.

● UPLYME parish councillors expressed objections against the following planning applications:

Creation of access onto B3165 Lyme Road from land east of Yawl Cross, Lyme Road, Ramonds Hill;

Construction of a single-storey dwelling at Highways, Harcombe Road;

Retrospective application to retain access track at land north west of Yawl Hill Lane;

Extension and conversion of redundant milking parlour to form new dwelling at Hillside Farm, Harcombe.

The councillors found no objections to the following applications:

Construction of two-storey extension and remodelling of existing and replacement garage with office accommodation area at Staddles, Cathole Lane;

Erect low voltage overhead line at land at Undercliffs, Ware.

UPLYME PARISH COUNCIL

by Francesca Evans

francesca@pemedial.co.uk

● PARISH councillors have proposed a vote of thanks to all those who helped grit the roads during the recent cold spell.

Councillor Andrew Turner said he hoped to organise further training sessions for the gritter to spread the workload. Those who can volunteer with a 4x4 vehicle, contact Councillor Turner on 01297 442599.

● SIX crimes were reported to police in Uplyme in recent weeks.

These included the theft of a car, during which a second vehicle was damaged. The stolen car was later found completely burnt out in the Axminster area.

Other offences have included two domestic incidents for which enquiries are ongoing, an offence under the Communications Act and a crime of causing alarm and distress.

PCSO Wooster has spoken to the owner of the large vehicle and trailer previously obstructing the road by the village gateway, and asks that any recurrence is reported on the 101 police number, for non-urgent matters.

● UPLYME parish council has appointed a contractor to tidy up and rebuild the unsightly compound in the village cemetery.

However, councillors noted that the daffodils were not expected to bloom this year as they had been targeted by vandals and cut, as previously reported in the View From Lyme Regis.

Next mayor will twin Lyme with Barfleur among first official duties

■ FORGING FRIENDSHIPS: The current Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman, receives a photo of Barfleur from the French town's mayor, Jean Deville, last year. But will Sally be signing the official charter?

ONE of the first duties for the next Mayor of Lyme Regis will be to sign the charter setting up the official twinning of the town with Barfleur, in Normandy.

The first part of the charter ceremony – the second will be in Lyme in September – is due to take place in Barfleur on May 25th, just a few days after the new mayor – as yet unelected – will take up his or her role as First Citizen.

The mayors of Lyme Regis and Barfleur will both sign a Declaration of Friendship, which is expected to give an undertaking to "provide and encourage cultural, social, tourist and economic exchanges" between the two towns.

The signing ceremony in Barfleur – during which the charter will be read in French and English – will be repeated when a party from Barfleur visit Lyme, expected on September 21st and 22nd.

More details about the progress of plans for the two towns to link up will be revealed at the annual meeting of the Lyme Regis Twinning Association tomorrow (Thursday) in the Guildhall.

Current and prospective members are invited to the meeting at 7.30pm.

After brief formal business there will be an open forum and social evening to include a video of Barfleur, wine and nibbles.

Turn Lyme Green back in action!

ECO-friendly group Turn Lyme Green will relaunch itself with a public talk on Tuesday, March 5th.

Following a campaign to reduce the amount of plastic bags used in the town, launched in 2007, and other eco-initiatives, Turn Lyme Green has been quiet in recent years but is now back in the public eye.

Richard Toft and team from Bridport Renewable Energy Group will be speaking at the Town Mill Malt-house about their DIY Anaerobic Digester on March 5th, starting at 7pm. All are welcome to attend.

As well as all the things you can put into your compost, an Anaerobic Digester can take grass, cooked food, meat and fish, oil and fat, and stale bread. The biomass is reduced to about a fifth resulting in a liquid fertiliser and nutrient rich soil.

When heated to 40-degree centigrade, bacteria break down the biomass giving off biogas, and this gas can be used as an alternative energy source.

The Bridport Renewable Energy Group believes that anaerobic digestion could add value to small scale food production. Thanks to some European and Chalk and Cheese funding, they have bought a proprietary digester.

The group has been developing the process at Our-ganics in West Dorset, an off-grid market garden and educational centre run on organic principles.

Mr Croft said: "We have now built several DIY digesters, at domestic scale, and it is one of these that we will use for the demonstration for Turn Lyme Green."

Turn Lyme Green leader, Candida Blaker, added: "This is the first Turn Lyme Green gathering for some time and we are looking forward to celebrating our sixth year anniversary with some refreshments after BREG has shown us their digester."

"We can also share news of many other exciting initiatives, and ideas of what we want to do next. Everyone is welcome, we look forward to seeing you."

More information can be found at www.turnlymegreen.co.uk and the group has also recently launched Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Home-grown talent to the

PANTOMIME is the ideal vehicle to introduce young people to the stage - mainly because it is so much fun.

They get the chance to do a bit of singing and dancing in the chorus line, graduate to one of the less taxing principal roles - and if they have obvious talent, which many of them do, a leading role beckons.

Tina Paveley has pantomime in her blood with mother Shirley's connection with the Lyme society going back to the 1950s when she was one of the leading lights.

Having come through the ranks, Tina is now a seasoned stage professional, perfect principal boy material, and her portrayal of Dick Whittington was up there among her best work on the local stage.

Gemma Hatton is another home-grown talent who has blossomed into a huge asset for the Lyme society.

As a member of the talented Rattenbury family (her father Brian is one of the town's most popular stage performers), she has a natural aptitude for comedy and her portrayal in the traditional dame role of Sarah The Cook in Dick Whittington is being hailed as a stellar performance by all who filled the Marine Theatre auditorium last week. She was simply hilarious, with perfect timing and establishing an instantaneous rapport with the audience.

THEATRE REVIEW by Philip Evans

Dick Whittington And His Cat Lyme Regis Pantomime Society Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis

A star is born

Gemma has appeared in previous Lyme pantos in the knock-about comedy roles, but this was her biggest part to date and solved the society's perennial problem of filling the dame role.

I came away from the show, like most others I suspect, thinking that another star was born.

Another big plus for the society was the performance of 17 year-old Melissa Denslow who played alongside Tina Paveley in the role of Alice, daughter of Alderman Fitzwarren.

This was Melissa's very first role with the pantomime society and with Tina's encouragement she rose to the challenge with a very confident performance and featuring in some charming duets, especially "I Chose Right" and "I Can't Take My Eyes From You".

Melissa had great family support in the show from grandmother Catherine Brooks, mum Claire and brother Charlee and I am sure we will be seeing much more of her on the Lyme stage in the future.

And a word of praise for Charlee, too. He played a couple of small parts but lost his voice at the dress rehearsal and had to mime his words which were delivered backstage by his gran's partner, Mike Brooks, who, I understand adopted a very camp accent on the final night, bringing the house down.

The laughtermetre also went to maximum every time Tanya Rattenbury walked on stage as Idle Jack. Her natural bubbly nature is ideally suited to the pantomime genre and she always manages to squeeze the maximum from the corny jokes and knock-about scenes.

Much of the comedy also came from Val Hawkins, a familiar pantomime face in Lyme, and young Harvey Causley in the roles of the Captain and Mate of the Golden Venture ship, whilst Shirley Colley made her usual appearance as the baddie, King Rat, generating the requisite number of boos and hisses along the way.

Catherine Brooks used her experience to good effect as the most sparkly of fairy godmothers with a performance to match, and Chris Quick, growing in confidence with every show, kept the flag flying for masculinity as the only adult male in the show, playing the role of Alderman Fitzwarren and looking like he was enjoying himself.

His daughter Megan was the very essence of feline dexterity as Dick Whittington's faithful cat, Tommy, scampering around the stage in a bid to

Olympic spirit at the Tunnel

TEAM GB pistol shooter Georgina Geikie hosted the first weekend event of Olympic legacy project "Shooting4England" at the Tunnel Target Sports Centre, near Charmouth.

The event was well-attended by children and their parents, many from the six schools that Olympian Georgina had visited in the run-up to the event. These included Axe Valley Community College, Sir John Colfox, Honiton Community College, Sherborne Girls, Sherborne Boys and Park School Yeovil, where Georgina presented an Olympic-theme assembly and invited a number of students to attend the event at the Tunnel.

Those attending varied in ability, with some Modern Pentathletes and Pony Club Tetrathletes showing their experience and taking part in the Shooting4England South West Championship qualification competition.

Georgina, better known as Gorgs, said: "It was evidence of what a great inclusive participation sport shooting is, when the mixed-gendered young people took part in the first qualification competition, alongside parents and teachers. A great competitive atmosphere circulated!"

The top three juniors (under 21 years) in both air pistol and air rifle shooting qualifies for the final at Okehampton Rifle Club in December.

Winners were as follows:

Air Rifle - Saturday winner - Jared Rufus, Sunday winner - Mikey Rose;

Air Pistol - Saturday winner - Michael Bailey, Sunday winner - Gabriel Johnson.

Local clubs were represented over the weekend as well as the National Smallbore Association, encouraging the enthusiasm for the sport to continue into the clubs safely throughout the area.

The next Shooting4England's next event will be held in South Devon at Paignton Rifle Club on May 11th and 12th. Visit www.gorgs4gold.com for more information, plus more photos and results from the first event at the Tunnel.

Village library re-opens after volunteer takeover

CHARMOUTH Library will re-open tomorrow (Thursday) following the takeover by volunteers and initial refurbishment.

The library, now to be known as Charmouth Hub, will open with full access to local and county-wide books and the use of Dorset Library services, but with extended opening hours and staffed by local volunteers.

The facility will be open from 2pm to 5pm Monday to Thursday, from 2pm to 6pm on Fridays and from 10.30am to 12.30pm on Saturdays.

Volunteers are now fundraising to cover the running costs of the library and will be hosting their second Auction of Promises at The George on Saturday, March 2nd, starting at 7.30pm.

The auction will include over 40 lots and auctioneer for the night will be Graham Barton of BBC's "Homes Under the Hammer".

Lots range from meals out, holidays at home and abroad and lifts to airports, to Reiki, Shiatsu, life-coaching and art lessons, not to mention a swimming membership at Wood Farm, rounds of golf, brewery tours and a painting by an award-winning local artist.

Local businesses have also offered manicures, shampoo and set, a food hamper, meat and a floral gift voucher. Catalogues are available at The George, NISA Charmouth Stores and Fortnam Smith & Banwell.

Friends of Charmouth Library chairman, Hazel Robinson, said: "The unsung heroes of most of our fundraising events have been the local traders and businesses who have given us tremendous support."

"We hope that as many of our visitors as possible take the time to call in to the local shops which are the lifeblood of our community."

■ TOP IN TOURISM: Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre staff Zoe Jones and manager Lorraine Knowles receive their award

TIC wins top award

STAFF at Lyme Regis Tourism Information Centre are celebrating after winning a South West Tourism Excellence Award.

The team won bronze in the Tourist Information Service of the Year category at the South West Tourism Excellence Awards. Staff received the accolade at an award ceremony held at the Eden Project earlier this month.

This year marks the ninth time in as many years that a West Dorset District Council-run tourist information centre has been shortlisted for an award.

The South West Tourism Excellence Awards celebrate the "best in the west" and aim to recognise the leading businesses and individuals in the tourism industry.

The team won the award after a mystery shopper visit and staff also entered a written application.

West Dorset District Council leader, Councillor Robert Gould, said: "A huge congratulations goes to the staff at Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre. It is fantastic news that all their hard work has been recognised.

"Tourism is a huge industry in the district and I am glad that the team are showing off our fantastic area to visitors, helping support businesses and generating income to the area.

"It is great news that we can offer award winning services as well as protecting front line services."

The district council runs four tourist information centres in Dorchester, Bridport, Lyme Regis and Sherborne.

Council names three roads for speed testing

DRIVERS on Anning Road, Uplyme Road and Woodmead Road in Lyme Regis will be encouraged to slow down with the installation of a speed indicator device.

The town council-owned device has previously been used on Sidmouth Road and Timber Hill, pointing out the speeds of those driving over the limit. Councillors have now agreed to install the device on three news roads for at least a week at a time.

Speaking at last week's Town Management Committee, Councillor Terry O'Grady said he did not see the point of having it installed for just one week and asked that it be in place for at least two.

Councillor Gage added: "In an area such as Anning Road, where speed is clearly a problem, there are cars on both sides of the road and it is one of the most densely populated areas of the town, I would like to see it there much longer."

He said he supported the proposed locations and would like to see follow-ups from the local police.

Councillor Ellis disagreed that the device should be in place for longer than a week.

She said: "I was under the impression that the longer it was there, the more likely people are to ignore it. If it becomes ineffective it's pointless having it."

Councillor O'Grady argued that the 20mph speed indicator device in Axminster was permanently in place and people still paid attention to it.

Referring to the fact that the device has been particularly under-used since the council bought it, he added: "I never want it to go back in its box again. I would like to see it rotated around the town."

News in a Nutshell

District council not doing enough to tackle dog fouling

A TOWN councillor has complained that West Dorset District Council does not do enough to tackle dog's mess in Lyme Regis.

At last week's Town Management Committee, Councillor Terry O'Grady picked up on a number of complaints from the public about dog mess at various locations around the town.

He said: "Dog fouling – the usual problem that plagues this town and, as usual, West Dorset does naff all.

"If we do catch owners allowing their dogs to foul we need to prosecute and make an example of them."

Councillor O'Grady was told that the town council's own enforcement officer could not issue on the spot fines but could recommend fines to the district council, which has its own dog warden.

Councillor Chris Clipson said dog fouling was "not just a small town problem, it's a national problem".

Women's prayer day

ST Michael's Parish Church in Lyme Regis will mark Women's World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 1st.

Each year the service is written by a different country and this year the theme is "Praying for France".

The service will begin at 2.30pm led by the Reverend Jane Skinners. Refreshments will be available afterwards.

All are welcome - men, women and children.

A preview of Shady Tree talk

The gate they were sat upon was situated halfway up the present day footpath from Jordan Flats to Anning Road and the land behind it under Shady Tree was one of the only flat places in Lyme, hence a popular place for children to play.

Shady Tree was chopped down when numbers 29 and 30 Anning Road were built on the site in the late 1940s.

This is just one of many old photos of Lyme that local historian Ken Gollop will be presenting as he explores the history of social housing in Lyme Regis in the next of his popular "Shady Tree" talks

The talk will be held on Sunday, March 3rd. Doors open at 2pm for a 2.30pm start.

Queen's Walk and Applebee Way would be built in the fields behind Colway Mead in more recent times.

The demise of the Lyme Youth Club in 1949 followed by the start of the Boys' Club, and what teenagers did in the 1950s will be touched upon in the talk, as will landslips, mermaids and a few other topical subjects.

J Larcombe Architectural Consultant celebrates two years in business

Continued success sees JLAC open new premises

THIS Friday J Larcombe Architectural Consultant will be celebrating two years in business.

Jim started his career at the age of 16 working for a well-established Architectural Practice in Dorchester. Having completed his ONC in Building Studies, Jim, turned his attention to his HNC and trying to find work closer to home. He moved onto a smaller practice in Beaminster gaining more valuable experience and completing his qualifications.

In March 2011, Jim made the big step to go it alone and set up JLAC in his hometown of Lyme Regis.

This has turned out to be a very successful step. With an ever increasing client base and good local knowledge, Jim has now taken on over 120 projects, with the majority of work coming in West Dorset, East Devon, South Somerset, but also the odd project from further afield, with work presently going as far as Buckinghamshire.

In Late January 2013, a new office premises was opened at 44 Church Street, Lyme Regis, where you will find Jim and some of his freelance staff.

In the past two years Jim has taken on a wide range of projects ranging from kitchen extensions, to barn conversions, new builds and was part of the team of consultants to gain outline planning permission for the new school in Uplyme, Devon.

With a wide range of contacts to call upon, when required, Jim can take on any size project whether its a new porch, or a housing Development, Jim will always be interested. At JLAC, distance is never a problem, and as long as travelling costs can be covered, the work will be welcome.

Jim is always on the look out for more freelance staff, with Architectural Technicians high on his list at the moment. If you have been looking to team up with an Architectural Practice, Jim will be willing to explore the possibility.

Jim would also like to take this opportunity to thank everybody that has helped him in the last year: "Whether it's recommendations, advice, or simply giving me the opportunity to work with you as clients. Most of all I'd like to thank my family, friends and girlfriend, who have stood by me all the way through."

Testimonials

"We were looking for a local architect and approached Jim as we liked planning applications that he had submitted for other local properties. We instantly warmed to Jim as he listened carefully to list of needs and type of architecture we liked and was able to offer his own ideas and suggestions. It showed how in tune he was with what we wanted as the initial plans he came up with are not too dissimilar to the plans ultimately submitted. After a couple of discussions we had plans that offered the contemporary family home that will work for us. We realised that our plans to convert a 70s style bungalow into a modern, contemporary family home were ambitious and so gave Jim a time frame of one year to obtain planning permission. We actually got planning permission in just a few months and it was an incredibly stress free process. Jim has created for us plans for home that will look amazing from the outside using a range of materials and has created an internal layout that will function brilliantly as a busy family home by the sea. We are keen to continue our relationship with Jim and have him project manage the build and would have no hesitation in recommending him to anyone looking for a local architect."

A. East, Lyme Regis

"We have just started work with Jim on an extension to our house. We chose him because he came well prepared, listened to us and had some really interesting ideas."

P. Blackshaw, Lyme Regis

"I was delighted with the plans and advice given to me for my extension by Jim Larcombe."

Not only were they completed swiftly and economically, but with close personal follow up, which is most important on any job big or small"

N. Fortnam, Lyme Regis

"Jim interpreted our layout requirements exactly and his window design has added significantly to the appearance of our home."

Planning consent was received quickly and without the need for any revisions. During the building work, Jim liaised with D & J Mew Developments, our builder, the structural engineer and Building Control to help the project to an early and highly successful conclusion."

Those unforgettable days of summer

MY father was a keen gardener, or at least an energetic one.

I'm not sure how much he actually enjoyed it but it was a question of necessity.

When I was a kid he would spend every Sunday, especially when the weather was fine, as did most of the men in the Anning Road in the 1950s, toiling in our 60-foot long stretch of garden at the back of the house with every nook and cranny cultivated.

We lived off the back of his labours, as all families did in our road as food rationing came to an end. There was never any need to buy vegetables, fruit was in abundance and we even kept our own chickens, although I distinctly remember my father struggling with the slaughtering of our Sunday lunch.

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

We never went hungry, a day never past without a nutritious hot meal on the table. And there were tons of treats - fresh strawberries during the season, homemade cakes and biscuits and my mum's speciality - nubbies (rock cakes).

I remember those Sundays like it was yesterday. There was always a lot of laughs, the men sharing family gossip while swigging from bottles of cider in those heatwave summers. We kids would run from house to house, "Two Way Family Favourites" would blare out from the radio. There would be great excitement if someone from Lyme, a soldier serving in Cyprus or some other hot-spot, got a mention.

I still live in that house today. Apart from a few greenhouse tomatoes, we don't grow any fruit and veg. Both gardens, front and back have long been grassed over.

I'm no gardener, although my wife Jackie is and spends hours making that same strip of land my dad sweated over every Sunday look nice for the visitors who stay in our garden flat in the summertime.

Occasionally, I help out by cutting the lawns, keeping the garden furniture smart and religiously getting the barbecue out of the shed and making sure there's enough gas in the bottle for the family barbecues that are invariably washed out.

Today it's bitter cold outside but there are signs that spring is on its way. The evenings are drawing out and there are some small signs in the garden that warmer days are just around the corner.

Soon the daffodils, my favourite flower, will be out in abundance. When we were kids we used to cycle over to Wootton, pick baskets of wild daffodils and sell bunches of them around the estate for threepence.

Sometimes I sit in my garden and dream of those carefree days 55 years ago. I can see my Dad sweating away in his vest, digging potatoes, picking carrots and chasing chickens.

There's still the occasional whiff of roast beef but not from our house. We never eat at lunchtimes, always in the evening.

Back in 1955 we never had lunch; it was dinner and tea. We had little but we wanted for nothing either.

Happy days - gone but not forgotten.

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

SOME readers have enquired why I don't include "Event Of The Week" in every column, as used to be the case.

There's a simple answer to that: frequently there are weeks now that I don't attend an event in Lyme.

Since the View from series became a part of the Tindle Newspaper Group in April of last year, I have a greater management load with responsibility for producing 15 weekly newspapers across the region.

I also write quite a bit of editorial for our East Devon papers and recently the group launched a new weekly in the City of Gloucester which is edited and produced at our Lyme office.

So a greater burden has fallen on Francesca to attend most Lyme events and edit the Lyme edition.

But I did manage to get along to Lyme Regis Pantomime Society's production of "Dick Whittington And His Cat" last week and thoroughly enjoyed the show.

Now I'm the first to admit that panto is not everyone's cup of tea. And as very few of our reporters relish covering such productions, particularly out in the villages where the humour is, now how shall I put this without causing offence, a little agricultural, I seem to end up doing more than my fair share. So by the time I got to the Marine Theatre last Thursday I was a bit pantoed out. But I always like seeing my home-town panto and the best thing about it is watching youngsters treading the boards for the first time.

At Lyme you always know you will see a professional portrayal from Tina Paveley in the principal boy role - and there's usually one or two who also catch the eye.

This year Gemma Hatton (nee Rattenbury) was the undoubted star of the show in her dame role, showing impeccable timing and great comic delivery.

Take a bow also 17-year-old Melissa Denslow, who was making her debut in the principal girl role playing opposite Tina Paveley from whom she will have learnt much.

And well done to Kathy Smith for putting it all together in her joint role of producer/director, possibly the youngest in the area, almost always with a smile on her face!

Year book for 2012 will be out soon

A RECORD of life in Lyme in 2012 - an unforgettable year - will be soon be hitting the bookshops.

For the past two years we have produced a Year Book chronicling the events that have been reported in the View from Lyme Regis in what was generally considered to be one of the busiest periods in recent history.

As Francesca does most of the reporting in Lyme these days, she is busily putting the pages together and the publication will soon go on sale.

It will record all the events that made 2012 such a special year for Lyme with the Jubilee and Olympics and feature all those who made the news and were featured in our columns.

With the Year Books for 2010 and 2011, it will form part of the modern day history of Lyme.

Jurassic flight simulator to stay

THE Jurassic Airlines flight simulator will continue operating on Lyme Regis seafront after its stint in the Jubilee Pavilion is finished.

The flight simulator, operated by Hartnell Creative Communications and Lyme Regis Development Trust, has been in the pavilion on Marine Parade since October and will continue to open in the same location until March 22nd.

Town councillors have now given permission for the initiative to continue operating in the Market Area of the Marine Parade shelters, next to the pavilion, from March 23rd to May 17th. This will include the Easter holidays, May Day Bank Holiday and the Fossil Festival, during which it was originally launched in the Market Area last year.

In return, Jurassic Airlines will continue offering Lyme Regis Town Council 10 per cent of ticket sales, but it is not certain how much this has generated so far.

Deputy town clerk John Wright has estimated that the council could earn between £500 and £1,500 from the simulator between March and May. However, when asked how much the council had received so far he could not give a figure.

The request to extend the operation of the simulator was discussed at last week's Town Management Committee, where only Councillor Michaela Ellis spoke against the proposal.

She asked: "How much money have we had from them so far. I think we need to take that into account."

She then referred to an agreement made between Jurassic Airlines and the Lyme Regis Branch of Cancer Research UK that a donation would be made to the charity from simulator ticket sales made on the day of the Great Christmas Pudding Race in December, as the branch had previously booked the pavilion for this event but were unable to use it because of the simulator.

Councillor Ellis said: "To date I don't think they have had anything."

She continued: "They say it brings people to the town but does it? It's just words on a piece of paper."

Councillor Ellis said she thought the simulator should be treated as a commercial enterprise and was concerned it was stopping other local groups raising funds at the shelters.

The deputy town clerk said he did not have figures on how much the council had received to date, he did not know if a donation had been made to Cancer Research UK and only two bookings had been made for the Market Area for this period, and both could be moved into the Performance Area.

Councillor Lucy Campbell added that the simulator was only partially commercial, with half the funds going to the development trust, which was a charity.

She added: "The income may be less than we thought but we should be grateful for any income. Ten per cent of something is better than nothing."

She proposed allowing the simulator to use the Market Place for the requested period, which was agreed with only Councillor Ellis voting against.

Councillors also agreed it was important that the neighbouring National Trust shop was happy with the set up and the deputy town clerk would hold discussions with Jurassic Airlines on how much they intended to contribute towards electricity.

■ TASTE OF JAPAN: Ladies of the Lyme Bay Lovelies chapter of the Red Hat Society with Shigeaki Takezoe at Hell Barn Cottages

Red Hat ladies tuck into Japanese

THE Lyme Bay Lovelies chapter of the Red Hat Society continued their "eating around the world challenge" with a Japanese lunch in Chideock.

In recent months the Lyme Regis-based group have been tasting foods from as many different countries as possible and have been impressed with the varied cuisine available in the local area. All the restaurants they have visited have been in Dorset, Devon or Somerset, including Thai, Spanish, Indian, Italian, Cuban and Nepalese, plus British fish and chips.

This week the ladies met at Hell Barn Cottages in Chideock, where proprietors Shigeaki and Diana Takezoe treated them to a Japanese feast, complete with Saki and chopsticks.

The holiday cottages in converted 18th century stone barns are tucked away in North Chideock and, as well as cooking for guests, Shigeaki and Diana can cater for outside parties of over four people. Prior booking is essential. For further details visit www.hellbarn.co.uk

The Red Hat ladies, known for their purple outfits and red hats, are now looking forward to their next meals, which will include Moroccan, Mexican, Malaysian, French and Polish.

The Red Hat Society is a social group, founded in America for women who want to greet middle age with "verve, humor and elan". It is based on Jenny Joseph's poem "Warning", the first lines of which read: "When I am an old woman I shall wear purple, With a red hat that doesn't go and doesn't suit me."

LYME Bay Photographic Club likes to promote new learning among its members so last Friday's meeting at the Woodmead Halls included a visit from Sheila Haycox, from Exmouth Club, who explained ways to create an audio visual presentation of photographs.

The demonstration also included various presentations that Sheila had done herself and members described the photography as "inspirational", and included shots of Northumberland in the snow, Asia, Paris, Slovenia, Holsworthy Cattle Market and a small island near Ireland where Sheila had taken shots of puffins and other sea birds.

LYME BAY PHOTOGRAPHIC CLUB

The photographs were accompanied by music and commentary and members hope they will now be able to produce something similar.

The next meeting is on Friday, March 8th when the Phil Wells competition will be judged.

Affordable housing: a new way forward for Lyme

PUBLIC MEETING CALLED TO DISCUSS POSSIBILITY OF SETTING UP A NEW COMMUNITY LAND TRUST

FOR many residents of Lyme Regis, the ability to afford housing of their own has been an unrealistic dream for a long time. Now, there is an option that could make it a reality.

Everyone in the local community is keenly aware that Lyme Regis suffers from a shortage of affordable housing, and a solution to the problem would create a very significant benefit - particularly for many of our younger people. Since 2008, Lyme Forward has been carrying out detailed studies to seek solutions, but the rules concerning development land allocation anywhere but in very small communities made useful progress difficult.

However, the current government's focus on localism has led to changes in the planning options for small towns such as Lyme Regis. There has also been a substantial interest across the country in establishing Community Land Trusts (CLTs), which can take advantage of the opportunities offered under this new planning scenario.

Last year, a group was established in Lyme Regis with encouragement from the town council and LymeForward, which for several months has explored whether the creation of a local CLT is practicable, and if it could potentially help in creating some affordable housing.

This volunteer group comprises Denis Yell, a retired Projects Director; Keith Jenkin, a retired bank manager; Ray Smith, who after a long career in industry has for many years helped local communities with affordable housing in Shropshire, and in Lyme Regis with Lyme Regis Development Trust; and Keith Shaw, who led the LymeForward work referred to above. All four have lived in Lyme Regis for several years, but are keen to be joined by long-term local residents with an interest in the housing dilemma.

The group has developed some useful initial ideas, which have received positive support from Oliver Letwin MP, as well as the regional CLT network, West Dorset District Council and Lyme Regis Town Council. In order to inform the community of this progress, and to describe their future plans, the group will be hosting a public meeting on Monday, March 11th at 7.30pm in the Woodmead Halls. All are welcome to attend and there will be no charge for admission.

The group and their advisors will review the concept of a CLT and describe the perceived opportunities for affordable housing which could be developed. They will also be appealing for volunteers to help achieve these goals.

The group have provided the following background information, to ensure that those attending the meeting can arrive with at least a rudimentary understanding of what is involved:

- The general UK shortage of affordable housing is a particular problem in communities such as Lyme Regis - with relatively low wages and high house prices - and a resolution of this crisis is a high priority issue at all levels in government. Here in Lyme it is one of the key housing aims the Community Plan.

- However, despite strenuous efforts by many people over several years - particularly LymeForward, the town council and West Dorset District Council - the problems in Lyme Regis have, if anything, become worse rather than better over the past few years. Only 23 affordable houses have been built in the town since 2000, against a predicted need of over 100 dwellings in the period 2008-2011 alone.

- The starting point for any affordable housing scheme has to be the acquisition of suitable land at low (or nil) cost. Once the land is acquired it must then be managed and protected to ensure it remains available for such housing in perpetuity. One way of achieving this would be to form a Community Land Trust (CLT).

- The CLT concept has been around for several decades and has worked well both in North America and here in UK. It involves the establishment of a local community led group that would take freehold ownership of suitable sites in perpetuity. Either the CLT would then build the homes itself, or lease the land to a housing association or similar for them to build and manage the housing. The CLT would have the power to influence the type of housing to be built, the definition of "local" people for whom it is to be built, and the terms of any tenancy (or sale).

- The fundamental premise for a CLT is that it is established by the community solely for the benefit of the community. Other CLTs undertake a range of activities, including the provision of local shops, village halls, and even pubs; but in Lyme Regis it is proposed that, at least for the start, focus is placed affordable housing. Membership or shareholding is open to the community, and the governing body of the CLT is elected by the members.

- It is intended that a CLT be formally established without delay, and the priority will then be to identify philanthropic (or public) owners of suitable sites - within or adjacent to our town - that could be acquired at little or no cost. A recent example of this is the development next to the village hall in Uplyme.

- One should not underestimate the effort that will be needed to drive the idea forward. It will require a great deal of hard work and patience. However, the existing group already has widespread support and will welcome help from anyone in the community who would like to become a member of the CLT. In particular, at the public meeting, the team will be keen to hear from people who would hope to become tenants or owners of the housing which the CLT aims to provide.

Ex-students' group to continue in new direction

THE Lyme Regis Woodroffe Association will continue to operate but will be focussing on a new direction following a "make it or break it" meeting last week.

The ex-students' group held an extraordinary general meeting at the Woodmead Halls on Saturday following declining attendance at reunions and a lack of interest from members to sit on the committee.

The association will no longer organise reunions every four years as it has previously done, but will endorse and support gatherings of ex students when and as they arise in various parts of the country. It will also continue to publish and distribute to members its magazine "Dispatches".

The new way forward was agreed after chairman John Broom said: "My committee feels that the four yearly reunions have run their course. The first reunion was packed, but it has got less and less each time since."

Mr Broom, who earlier had announced his intention not to seek re-election, agreed to stay in office until the next annual meeting in November.

Members were encouraged by the enthusiastic and positive response of ex-pupil Adam Austin who has organised a reunion of former students who attended the school between 1975 and 1982.

The reunion will take place at Lyme Regis Football Club on June 1st and a gathering of about 200 was expected, with a marquee being set up on the pitch.

Mr Austin said: "There is a genuine appetite among ex-students to come to a reunion."

Treasurer Roz Cupper reported a bank balance of £4,400. The officers and committee were elected en-bloc.

More transparency needed after landslips reveal town council's dependency on stricken chalets

■ THE insight into our town's finances provided by the chalet slip is remarkable ("Chalet slips could lose council £157k per year", View from Lyme Regis, February 20th).

Information has, as a result, been shared with the public that a huge chunk of Lyme Regis Town Council's (LRTC) annual income comes from ground rents that are backed by only short-term planning permission, which in turn depends on the vagaries of geology and climate.

From that perspective, LRTC's long-standing practice (as I understand it) of holding a substantial cash reserve made excellent sense.

What's harder to understand is why Councillor Owen Lovell was the only town councillor, some four years ago, who questioned the wisdom of LRTC going into debt to build the shelters' shops and community rooms. Did even he question the use of the reserve to build the main part of the shelters in between them?

At the time, we were told that the debt would be paid off by the shop rents. A few weeks ago we were told that the shelters would be running at a significant loss for several years to come.

If there had been greater transparency of LRTC finances at that time, might more pressure have been put on councillors to balance the shelter dream with the potentially slippery financial reality?

Let's hope that this (potential) crisis encourages LRTC to continue its recent trend towards such greater transparency. For example, I would guess that a lot of townsfolk would like to know soon what LRTC's plans would be if significant income is lost due to the slips, or if significant spending is needed to shore them up. Hopefully, anxieties can be allayed over what is actually going on.

Talking of transparency, I note that the Mayor sat out the three and a half hour debate on the chalet slip because of a significant personal financial interest. Whatever the rule book says, it would surely be common sense that she should also have excused herself from all council work (face-to-face, by phone or email) in preparing the brief for that meeting, and in deciding whether a special, earlier meeting was needed. Did she?

In all of this context, and others, the suggestion put to the editor of this newspaper that he has no right to criticise those in public office ("Going soft on the council - who me?", View from Lyme Regis, February 20th) is, quite frankly, weird. Indeed, in the context of a democracy, it is more than a bit sinister. So well done to John Grantham for speaking up, on a different but equally important local issue, about how democracy is precisely about the exchange of many views ("Cabinet system leads to 'risky decision making'", LymeLetters, February 20th).

Beach hut rental could make up money lost on concession

■ I'M pleased that United Beach Missions are to be allowed to return to Lyme this summer (View From Lyme Regis, February 20th)

Over the 40 years that they have been coming, thousands of children have been entertained for free, and to the best of my knowledge nobody has been brain washed into joining some religious cult.

Some councillors were apparently concerned about loss of income that they would have received from either of the other applicants. If they want to raise more money they should look into how they rent out the beach huts.

Book a beach hut for 10 weeks through the summer will cost approximately £1,000 or book one of only five allowed on an annual booking and you will pay £800 and you will get seven free weeks. Surely they could make it a fairer system and, unfortunately, local people who pay their rents and rates and shop in the town 52 weeks of the year are not allowed any priority booking because, quote "it wouldn't be fair on the visitors". Well, maybe occasionally local should get a perk, and perhaps locals could get 24-hour priority booking even if it means going to the council offices on the day to book.

Remember councillors, it's not the visitors that vote for you it's the locals.

THE current cold snap has brought a welcome gift to Lyme Regis lifeboat crew.

Boylos Watersports on Marine Parade and O'Neill Wetsuits teamed up to present the crew with a complete set of new, high-tech neoprene gloves.

The gloves were handed over on Sunday by Dee Caldwell, European Sales Director of O'Neill (pictured right).

Murray Saunders of Boylos, who is also a crew member, said: "Working in the cold is one thing, but when you add water to the equation you quickly lose feeling in your hands.

"With lifeboat rescues typically lasting over an hour it's important that tasks aren't inhibited by cold, clumsy fingers.

"This generous donation of special gloves will help the crew, adding to their performance and comfort in difficult conditions."

Miranda Sykes and Rex Preston to perform at Electric Palace

WELL-KNOWN as the third member of Show of Hands, Miranda Sykes is a superb singer and double bassist, slipping effortlessly between musical genres. She is joined on stage by Rex Preston, the most virtuosic mandolin player in the U.K.

Miranda and Rex have a unique connection which is a pleasure to listen to and plain to see when they share a stage together. As one of the few female double bassists in England, Miranda is also an accomplished singer in her own right and holds her audience spellbound: it is the emotional quality of her voice that makes her musical partnership with Rex so engaging, rather than the novelty of such an unusual musical pairing as the double bass and mandolin. Rex has a reputation as a fine and imaginative mandolin player and is a leading light in a new wave of British Bluegrass musicians. He is a rising star in mandolin-playing circles and with 20 years of playing behind him, he possesses a wonderfully sensitive musicality and a dexterous, flamboyant playing style.

Once you hear the duo perform together, it becomes clear why Radio 2s Mike Harding is such a big fan. This is not a gig to be missed.

Miranda Sykes and Rex Preston will be performing live at the Electric Palace on Friday, March 1st. Doors open 7pm, with the show starting at 8pm. Tickets cost £10 in advance, £12 on the door - available from the Box Office 01308 424901 / www.seetickets.com

The Importance of Being Earnest

OSCAR Wilde's theatrical masterpiece is widely-acknowledged as one of the greatest comedies in the English Language. Wonderful characters, sparkling dialogue, gloriously improbable plot twists and a sprinkling of romance - The Importance of Being Earnest has it all.

Jack is in love with Gwendolen. Algernon is in love with Cecily. But when an identity crisis spirals out of control, the previously separate worlds of town and country collide and delicious mayhem ensues. Thoughts of marriage and a happy ending must be put on hold until the inimitable Lady Bracknell can be convinced that the young men are worthy suitors.

The Importance of Being Earnest has delighted millions since its first London performance in 1895. A scintillating comedy of manners, Oscar Wilde's best-loved work overflows with dazzling wordplay and comic invention. LCT promise to bring this 19th Century classic to vivid, extravagant life with their customary flair, attention to detail, high-quality casting and impeccable production values.

In 2010, London Classic Theatre celebrated ten years on tour, having performed to over 300,000 people at more than 150 theatres and arts centres around the UK and Ireland. The company, led by founder and Artistic Director Michael Cabot, produces challenging, accessible drama for audiences in London and the regions. LCT has explored the work of some of the finest playwrights of the last fifty years, including Joe Orton, Harold Pinter, Brian Friel and Mike Leigh. They have also staged more challenging work, with national tours of two plays by Marivaux, Bryony Lavery's Frozen and a further two UK premières, Nightfall by Joanna Murray-Smith and Love in the Title by Hugh Leonard. From February - June 2011, LCT toured two plays at the same time with its Modern Takes Season of European Classic drama, featuring productions of Patrick Marber's After Miss Julie and Ibsen's Ghosts in a new version by Frank McGuinness. Most recently, from September 2011 - July 2012, LCT produced the critically-acclaimed tour of Equus by Peter Shaffer.

Grammy nominated Gretchen Peters to perform at the Electric Palace

THE title of Gretchen Peters' new album Hello Cruel World is a pun on the famed exit line — a joke that, like the lovely melodies and deliciously textured arrangements framing these 11 songs — sweetens this captivating music spun from a year of turmoil. The Grammy nominated singer-songwriter from Nashville calls Hello Cruel World her "most close-to-the-bone work, written at a time when I felt absolutely fearless about telling the truth."

Explaining Hello Cruel World's genesis, Peters says, "In 2010 the universe threw its best and its worst at me. Some of it was personal, some global. All of it seemed to demand that I redefine my ideas of permanence and reevaluate what I believe in, to literally rethink what is real."

Gretchen Peters plays the Electric Palace on Wednesday, March 6th. Tickets are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Information Centre 01308 424901 or online www.seetickets.com Doors open 7pm / Starts 8pm

FARM BOY IS A WINNER

BRIDPORT Arts Centre was pleased to announce the winners of it's Farm Boy competition on Thursday, February 22nd prior to it's sell out performances. Winners were awarded vouchers for Toymaster, and the budding artist Jamie Nabett, 11, even went behind the scenes meeting the leading actor.

The play by Award-winning former Children's Laureate Michael Morpurgo is a sequel to his much-loved novel, War Horse and a moving account of the changing face of the English countryside and a reminder that stories can reach out across generations. Children were asked to draw an image or write a poem based on themes from the book including rural life, passing on stories and helping others.

John Walters, who plays the grandpa in the show said "It's brilliant to see Bridport children connecting with the play on such a deep level, the competition showed all of the themes in the book and the young competitors did a astounding job".

The Circus returns to Bridport

CLASS ACT | Britain's Best Circus
Comedy Act Kakehole the Clown and Mr Popol are back in Bridport!

ASKER Meadows is due to play host to a travelling circus once again, five years since the last time the Big Top appeared.

Circus Wonderland is due to arrive during the Easter holidays with shows running from Wednesday April 3rd until Sunday April 7th.

Wonderland is the theme as well as the show's title, with special effects, illusions and original music and lyrics creating a spellbinding show to enchant audiences of all ages.

When Kakehole the Clown falls asleep, his bedtime story comes to life as showgirls, acrobats and jugglers transport him into a fantasy world of thrills and spills and laughter where anything can happen.

There is a Close Encounter with the Duo Stefanelli, who fly through the roof of the Big Top in their glittering spaceship, while the amazing Alejandro sets pulses racing as he swoops and soars high above the audience on his death defying trapeze.

Angel Bojilov can juggle and spin plates on sticks, all whilst perching precariously on a tightrope, and Hungarian State Circus star Laci will balance his wife Klaudia at the top of a twenty foot pole, on his head!

Kakehole is joined by the elegant whiteface clown Mr Popol, with whom he has twice been voted Britain's Best Circus Comedy Act.

Mixing music, magic and mayhem in their own unique brand of comedy chaos, this madcap pair will be arriving with a trunk full of tricks and will be accompanied by their lovable friend Bertie the cartoon Bear.

Circus spokesman Paul Carpenter said: "We are really looking forward to bringing our show to Bridport, and are very grateful to the Town Council for making our visit possible when they have not hosted a circus for several years."

Ash kick-off A to Z of Camp Bestival's announcement

Northern Ireland three-piece join Richard Hawley, The Levellers and Labrinth on the bill

CAMP Bestival organisers have begun unveiling the A To Z Of Camp Bestival 2013. Giving you the lowdown on some of the treats they've got in store for the Lulworth Castle jamboree in August, they've got an absolute belter to kick things off, not unreasonably with the letter 'A'!

Rob da Bank says: "I'm always checking out what our Camp Bestival fans wanna see and Ash have been in there since we began so it's a corking way to kick off our A-Z... We've just sorted a great 'B' and 'C' but got the other 23 letters to sort. Watch this space."

"We're over the moon to be able to announce that one of our favourite bands of all-time, Ash are coming to the party to get the Castle Stage crowd jumping! It's hard to believe, but our Northern Irish heroes have been rocking it out for 21 years, racking up one of the best armoureds of singalong good time tunes known to man."

SHINING LIGHTS | A is for Ash!

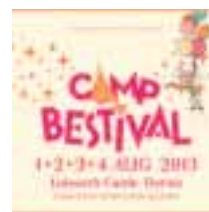

From 'Girl from Mars' and 'Angel Interceptor' to 'Shining Light' and 'Burn Baby Burn', they're second-to-none when it comes to showing a crowd a good time. And, of course, they're the perfect act to kick off our newly-announced A to Z, as they're no strangers to alphabet-based high-jinks (having released their own A to Z series of singles during 2009 and 2010)!"

Speaking of the A to Z, keep your eyes on the Camp Bestival Facebook and Twitter in the coming weeks as they'll be unveiling a whole world of fun that they'll be bringing to you this August. With something for everyone, it's the ultimate family festival with the Around The World theme, musical treats like Richard Hawley and Billy Bragg and one of the best DJ line-ups anywhere in the world, including Grandmaster Flash, Sasha, Fabio & Grooverider and Andrew Weatherall & Sean Johnston's A Love From Outer Space. There's plenty of disco action to be had too with Kid Creole & the Coconuts' coruscating live show and The Cuban Brothers rolling out the 70/80/90s good times - we'll all be dancing round our handbags long into the night. And we haven't even touched on Kids' Discos every day in Bollywood, Art Town, our brand new Dance Space, the redesigned Dingly Dell, lots of brand new stuff for 2013 and so much more. So make sure you keep checking back to discover the goodness!

Finally for now, don't forget your little'uns have an opportunity to win a weekend camping ticket for you and your family in the Around The World Colouring-In Competition judged by Dick n Dom! To be in with a chance of joining us all they have to do is help to get the Camp Bestival team of animal explorers ready to travel 'Around The World' by giving them a bit of colour. You can download the picture that needs colouring in from www.campbestival.net/news/around-the-world-colouring-in-competition/. Entries need to be in by March 18th, so what are you waiting for?! Good luck!

Please check www.campbestival.net and our Facebook and Twitter for all the latest news, and visit www.ticketline.co.uk for ticket booking and information.

The day Bridport turns vinyl

THE recent upsurge in vinyl records fostered by a large number of radio and tv shows on the listening pleasure of records, should come as no surprise to Bridport, the town is becoming established as "The Hay-On-Wye" type town for Record and CD Buyers with its quarterly Vinyl Saturday Record and CD Fair and over 20 shops around town and a number of Saturday Market stalls also selling records and cds.

Vinyl Saturday started in November 2008 at the dawn of the renaissance of renewed interest in vinyl records and made Bridport the first town in the UK and probably Europe to recognise it and offer music fans the opportunity to buy find and buy vinyl records again and other music related items all in one town. The event was that successful that in the following year - The world's leading authority on all things vinyl Record Collector Magazine recognised it as Fair of the year

The quarterly event runs in March, May, August and November of each year and is supported by the Town Council, Tourist Board, Shops and Bridport Market Traders.

Bob Gillis the Town Clerk said for 2013 "Bridport's Historic Street Market continues to be very popular with local people and visitors to the area, with a wide variety of over 100 stalls on a Saturday. This includes a large number of music stalls, which take pride of place on Vinyl Saturday, which has become one of the key events in the town's annual calendar.

As the event has grown so as the need for a bigger venue The Record and CD fair on the March 2nd has moved to a new venue in Bridport United Church, East St and dates for 2013 and 2014 are already in the calendar. The record and cd fair on March 2nd will be the biggest yet with over 25 tables booked and will run from 10am to 4pm, admission £1 or free with the advert in this paper.

The Knicker Lady returns

ROSEMARY Hawthorne, aka The Knicker Lady, is making a welcome return to Dorchester Corn Exchange at 7.30pm on Friday, March 22nd with her brilliant Two Act, One Woman Show of the same name.

Rosemary, who is often to be seen or heard on television and radio, combines her dramatic and comedic skills as a classical actress with her knowledge as a respected fashion historian to provide two hours of scintillating, unforgettable theatre.

The Knicker Lady takes her audience on a colourful, two hundred a fifty year jaunt through women's lives, told with wit, satire and sometimes broad comedy, illustrated by what they wore - both on top and underneath.

Described by one critic as "The Joyce Grenfell of knickers" and by another as "having the style and timing of pure comic genius", Rosemary is quite simply unique and not to be missed!

Rosemary Hawthorne brings The Knicker Lady show to Dorchester Corn Exchange, 7.30pm on Friday, March 22nd.

Palace to screen Met Opera Live's production of Wagner's Parsifal

Jonas Kaufmann as Parsifal

FOLLOWING the global success of Verdi's Rigoletto in February which saw one of the largest audiences for opera at the Electric Palace to date, the Bridport venue now screens Wagner's Parsifal on Monday, March 4th and anticipates another excellent evening. Electric Palace Director Gabby Rabbitts enthused that "Rigoletto attracted a great audience with many people attending for the first time. The two course supper, which is served during the intervals, was fully booked and had a terrific atmosphere. If you haven't been before, it is a lovely evening out."

Jonas Kaufmann will star in the title role of the innocent who finds wisdom in François Girard's new vision for Wagner's final masterpiece. His fellow Wagnerian luminaries include Katarina Dalayman as the mysterious Kundry, Peter Mattei as the ailing Amfortas, Evgeny Nikitin as the wicked Klingsor, and René Pape as the noble knight Gurnemanz. Daniele Gatti conducts.

The production has already earned high praise from the most respected critics in the States, including the Wall Street Journal "François Girard successfully transforms the opera into a timeless story... Arresting, consistently absorbing... a moving, modern vision." The New York Post also gave high praise "A magnificent new production... an exquisite pleasure for the eye and ear, it's also food for the soul"

Doors open 4.30pm, and the show starts at 5.00pm. Tickets cost £14.50 adults, £12.50 for members, children £10, available from the box office 01308 424901 / www.seetickets.com Two course supper available in interval - booking essential at Bridport TIC.

Eden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build Unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a professional, friendly, integrated service.

ley, the Blackdown Hills and the Vale of Taunton. Installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping package including Lawns, Horticulture and Aquatics.

An example is illustrated here where a sunken garden has been created by installing terracing and steps. This enables access to the bedding Generous mulching means maintenance costs are low. In fact "cost leadership" is at the forefront of the business whilst keeping quality and the principles of design central. Further information, supporting literature and help is freely available.

Sherborne Turf

FROM our location in the picturesque village of Trent, Sherborne Turf has been supplying the gardeners of Dorset, Somerset, Hampshire and Wiltshire with quality lawn turf and garden products for over 35 years. Our turf is grown in high quality farmland which forms part of The Trent Estate, using a unique blend of grasses that will knit together to form a firm base, negating the need for potentially harmful netting that could pose a trip hazard and be costly to remove.

Supplying the local area with fresh turf cut to order, low 'turf miles' mean our grass is green in more ways than one!

At Sherborne Turf, our product range has expanded to meet the needs of our customers. Garden soils are stored under cover in winter ready for delivery in bulk bags, along with a variety of top dressing, bark, mulch and compost for the serious gardener.

Deliveries are made using our own fleet of vehicles and drivers experienced in the handling of turf and associated products. While the trade standard for deliveries is 'kerb-side', our drivers understand this is not always practical for your gardens, and so we will always endeavour to place your items as conveniently as possible for you, subject to suitable access.

All of the staff at Sherborne Turf have experience of the items we sell, so for assistance on any aspect of your garden project, please give us a call on 01935 850388. Office hours are 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, and Saturday mornings during busy periods.

Axminster Garden Machinery

AXMINSTER Garden Machinery was formed in 1999 Phil Roper who has worked in the horticultural industry as a garden machinery expert for over 32 years.

Axminster Garden Machinery have a large showroom and parts department as well as a fully equipped workshop so you can actually view and handle virtually every type of machinery we supply. If working hours mean you can't come during the opening ours someone can meet you on site or open the show room for you at an arranged time. Ideally they always like to do a site visit especially when choosing perhaps ride-ons or larger equipment and give you some honest advice and to see the garden or working area. The aim is to know that the customer's needs and concerns have been met to give them quality, user-friendly equipment at the right price with a full service package, to make the maintenance of their garden a pleasurable experience.

Here there is always someone to help with machinery to suit all budgets. Everything they supply is for the UK market and is always fully pre-delivery inspected. They only take payment when the customer is happy!

When repairing machinery we at Axminster Garden Machinery firmly believe in quality engineering and design when it comes to new equipment and I personally carefully select every piece of machinery we sell and have used and tested all the machinery we offer. We pride ourselves on the fact that all the equipment we sell we are factory main appointed dealers for this gives the customer a piece of mind when it comes to to spares or repairs or servicing. We can provide the full backup.

Duchy Timber

WITH modern global trade and the UK's abandonment of manufacturing, your garden furniture could come from anywhere. Some places a lot less reputable than others.

Through global industry accreditations such as Forestry Stewardship Council (FSC) and Programme for the Endorsement of Forest Certification (PEFC), there are ways for you as a consumer to make a more informed choice when it comes to purchasing your new wooden garden furniture.

Cornwall and Devon benefit from huge areas of woodland and luckily has a well-established forestry and timber industry that can not only sustainably manage these reserves to high standards that are globally-recognised, but can also process that harvested crop into high value products for construction and agriculture as well as your home & garden.

Obviously, timber from your local community, instead of timber that has been shipped thousands of miles around the world, has far better environmental credentials. But local timber is not just better for the environment, it also gives you piece of mind that it is benefitting ancient local industries and trades. Just like the minced beef for your family's spaghetti Bolognese this Saturday or the milk on your corn flakes this morning; buying local is good for you, your community, the local economy and the environment.

In 1958, the Duchy of Cornwall set up a sawmill at Downend near Lostwithiel. Now owned by a forester with more than twenty years industry experience, the sawmill is now one of the largest in the south west and is the beating heart of Duchy Timber Limited. Duchy Timber garden furniture, gates and fencing products are made from wood that is sustainably felled within Cornwall, Devon and Somerset and are handmade by experienced craftsmen using traditional techniques.

Paul Prettejohn

17 YEARS of hard work, learning the trade inside out and excellent customer service have paid dividends for Paul Prettejohn in building a strong and loyal customer base.

Marshall James Garden Development

HERE at Marshall James, we specialise very much in the domestic side of landscaping, the majority of the work has been and continues to be the making or altering of gardens.

Our philosophy is that your garden is an extension to your property, another room just as important, using your garden for your children, home, produce, or just easier to maintain, you might be coming into retirement or just have a busy working lifestyle. Our team has a combination of skills and specialities enabling us to take on more complicated schemes, but never will we make a distinction between whether your garden is large or small, it is your own individual space whatever the size.

Having worked alongside many well known designers, time and experience has enabled us to offer and 'in house' design service where we blend our own ideas and styles with a wide range of horticulture variables and individual aspirations of our customers.

The Company has competed twice at Chelsea Flower Show, becoming Silver and Gold Medal winners. It was a time of both inspiration and a challenge to compete successfully against our peers at the very highest level, it was a massive achievement for the whole team.

The Company's red pickups with their distinctive logos have become a familiar site on the local roads for the last 26 years. Our roots remain firmly in Beaminster with our yard in Tunnel Road behind Little Groves.

Our enthusiasm and passion for what we do is unchanged, each job has a fresh set of challenges and the gardening year in cyclical and season dependent, ensuring that no task is the same and that there is always a new problem to overcome.

Whether it is pruning your trees and shrubs, sorting out your Roses and climbers, Marshall James can offer you a full range of services, design, hard and soft landscaping and specialist maintenance. Please feel free to contact us to discuss any of your gardening needs and we would be only too pleased to help.

Ponds Are Me Ltd.

I AM an award winning pond designer based in East Devon and I supply a 1-stop shop for the transformation of any garden particularly with the addition or revamp of any water feature from a pond to a small water fountain.

I have been passionate about water gardening and garden landscaping for over 30 years and have recently completed a 10,000 gallon water garden of my own, including four stunning waterfalls.

Everything from planning your pond to building it, from cleaning it to treating it, is done to perfection. With friendly advice to help you finish with a pond how YOU wanted it. I take the time to make sure you are satisfied with all things connected with your pond and garden.

I now cover Devon, Cornwall, Somerset and Dorset, and have a very healthy portfolio of customers throughout the Westcountry, as well as clients as far away as Wales and Hampshire.

Trust me to transform your garden with the addition of a stunning pond or water feature, or to bring your existing pond back to its' brilliant best. I will use my prize winning planning skills to be able to present you with the garden of your dreams!!

I now supply a wide range of high quality, competitively priced food for all types of fish, including Koi. Check the on-line store at www.pondsareme.co.uk or call me for details.

Groves Nurseries

WITH the first signs of spring just beginning to show it must be time to start thinking about getting back out in the garden. Both Groves Nurseries in Bridport and Little Groves in Beaminster are fully stocked and have everything you need. Of course they have seed potatoes, onion sets and shallots for sale right now as well as a complete range of vegetable seeds. If flowers are more your thing then now is the time to be thinking about summer flowering bulbs, they have a fantastic collection of dahlias, begonias, gladioli and lilies in stock right now. If you are after even more choice then Groves in Bridport have their baby bedding in stock. These small seedlings give you a great head start in the garden and there is a fantastic range of fuchsias and geraniums. With their extensive selection of baby basket plants this is the most economical way of getting some great hanging baskets this year.

Mercedes-Benz A-Class is AM's New Car of the Year

THE NEW A-Class was announced as 'AM New Car of the Year' at last night's prestigious AM Awards.

Tim Rose, Managing Editor of AM, commented: 'The new A-Class has the style, dynamism and technology that's required to punch its weight in this highly competitive sub-segment. It's an all-round performer and just the product that Mercedes-Benz dealers need to entice new customers into their showrooms.'

The announcement of the win for the new A-Class has added to the momentum behind the new model which has been met by significant demand not just in the UK but throughout Europe, with 90,000 pre-orders for the car ahead of its market introduction.

Marcus Breitschwerdt, President and CEO of Mercedes-Benz UK commented: 'This is a significant win that reflects not only our investment in innovation but also our commitment to listening to existing and potential customers and giving them exactly what they want. We have an exciting year ahead for the new A-Class, and this is a great start.'

'From the innovative interactive marketing campaign through the style and technology packed into the car itself, to how our network is marketing and selling this great car, everything about the way we're approaching the A-Class is new. This Award is great recognition of those efforts.'

First deliveries of the new A-Class commenced in January following on from a series of innovative and vibrant regional roadshows throughout 2012, raising awareness among potential buyers and demonstrating its bold new direction as well as its advanced comfort, safety and dynamic systems fitted as standard. Prices start at £18,945 OTR – images and detailed information on the new A-Class can be found here.

In what was a successful evening for Mercedes-Benz, the innovative My Dash system also won an Award – being named 'Best Digital Initiative'.

New 188 MPG Audi A3 e-tron motors into Geneva

Plug-in hybrid provides a realistic glimpse into the future of Audi, as the new A3 e-tron makes its debut at the Geneva Motor Show

AUDI will make all the right connections next month when the A3 e-tron petrol/electric hybrid – capable of up to 188mpg – adds to the roster of highlights on the Audi stand at the Geneva Motor Show. Integrating a conventional petrol engine and an electric motor, the advanced plug-in hybrid offers impressive performance, exceptional efficiency and, equally crucially, complete freedom from 'range anxiety'.

The electrification of the drivetrain, above all using plug-in technology, will play a decisive role in the model strategy of the Vorsprung durch Technik brand. This latest development is designed to give some insight into how the technology will take shape in the Audi models of the future.

A modified 1.4-litre TFSI unit, in this application featuring a peak power output of 150PS, provides the more 'conventional' input for the A3 e-tron. A clutch links this to a 75kw electric motor, which is integrated into a newly designed six-speed 'e-S tronic' transmission sending power to the front wheels. Combined, the two power units generate 204PS of system power and 350PS of system torque, good for a 0-62mph sprint of 7.6 seconds and a top speed of 138mph. Peak torque from the electric motor is instantly available from rest to around 2000 rpm, and maximum torque from the TFSI engine is on hand between 1,750 and 4,000 rpm.

Equally importantly, according to the ECE standard for plug-in hybrid cars, the A3 Sportback-based e-tron is capable of covering up to 188mpg with CO2 emissions of just 35g/km.

The Audi A3 e-tron can run exclusively on electric power for up to 31 miles at speeds of up to 80mph, or can be powered by petrol combustion alone. Alternatively, the hybrid mode brings both units into play, and the driver can choose to run these simultaneously – a function known as 'boosting'. When the driver stops accelerating in this mode, both motors temporarily deactivate, eliminating motor braking torque and allowing the car to glide to conserve fuel and recuperate energy.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Seasiders stunned by Saints Ambers warm-up for big day with win

WINNER: Phil Hussey's goal sets-up Netherbury nicely ahead of Saturday's Junior cup semi-final.

SAVE: Rob Thom came off the bench to save a penalty but Lyme Regis still surprisingly went down 1-0.

DOUBLE: Josh Hunter scored both goals as Beaminster beat Farway to close the gap on leaders Winsham.

ROUND-UP
Saturday, February 23rd
Challenge cup SF
PERRY STREET 2 WINSHAM UNITED 6
JOE Simmons scored four times as Winsham booked their place in the Challenge cup final after a 6-2 extra-time victory at Tatworth.

Matt Brown and skipper Darren Spurdle also netted for the victors. Ryan Mason and a Dan Isacs OG made up the Mothers tally.

Challenge Cup QF
ILMINSTER TOWN RES 3 MILLWEY RISE 1
ILMINSTER Town Reserves upset the form book to beat Millwey Rise and line-up a semi-final against Lyme Regis at the Davey Fort on Saturday.

Rise took an early lead through Ben Turner but the hosts were level at the break courtesy of a 20-yarder from centre-back Lewis Scott.

Ilminster took control after the interval and goals from Ian Masters and Taylor Jefferson clinched the win.

Rise's stand-in manager Shane Featherstone said: "It was a terrible half-hearted display, with only Terry Emmett taking any credit."

Kenny Hodges Cup - QF
UPLYME RESERVES 2 FARWAY UNITED RES 3
UPLYME Reserves' hopes of a welcome cup run evaporated as they were edged out by visiting Farway United Reserves at Venlake.

The hosts, in their first match for 10 weeks, took the lead through Harry Thresher. But Farway struck twice to lead 2-1 before Stuart King scored from the penalty spot after referee Willie Marks had spotted a foul in the area.

The visitors bagged the winner seven minutes from time to clinch semi-final against Barrington Reserves.

◆ SEMI-FINAL DRAW: Farway United Res v Barrington Res, Shepton Beauchamp Res v Thorncombe Res.

Premier
BEAMINSTER 2 FARWAY UTD 1
BEAMINSTER stay joint top after coming from behind to beat relegation-haunted Farway United.

The Rainbows were depleted by unavailability and injury and manager Sean Annetts was forced to shuffle his pack, he said: "I only had one regular defender in the starting line-up."

Beaminster, missing midfielder Dave Penn who suffered a recurrence of a groin injury in training, created three of four chances in the opening 20 minutes but the makeshift back line were soon made to pay for an error when Farway top-scorer cashed in with his eighth goal of the season.

And that's the way it stayed until the interval but the hosts were level soon after the restart when Josh Hunter round-up off a fine team move.

The winner came in the 76th minute and again it was Hunter who netted - this time with a superb individual effort after shrugging of two challenges.

Afterwards Annetts told View Sport: "Despite the close looking score line I thought we thoroughly deserved the win. I pleased, we played well, and despite trailing at half-time I told the players not to panic."

LYME REGIS 0 COMBE RESERVES 1
AN 11th minute goal from Jay Stewart brought an end to Lyme Regis' proud 19-game winning run at the Davey Fort.

The Seasiders, who came into the game missing regulars Matt Laing, Luke Clifton, Dan Rudge, Will Mowbray and Julien Simier, almost took an early lead when Jason Hawker got on the end of a Steve Batey long throw-in and nodded past Combe 'keeper Nathan Bandy but struck the post.

The only goal came when a long ball over the Lyme back four left player-manager Karl Diment in a race with Stewart.

Both players got to the ball together with Stewart claiming the last touch as the ball gently looped over on-rushing 'keeper Will Meech and bounced into the unguarded net.

Lyme responded and Ben Whittington went close with a low drive that Bandy did well to tip round the post.

At the other end ex-Perry Street man Kieran Bailey shot narrowly over after a melee in the Seasiders' area.

A key moment in the game occurred in the 34th minute when Dominic Rowe rolled a back pass to Meech but, in an incident reminiscent of England goalkeeper Paul Robinson's howler in Croatia back 2006, the ball hit a divot and hopped over the teenage keeper's boot.

Stewart chased down the loose ball and headed towards the empty net only for Meech to haul him down.

Referee Mark Macey had no option that to reach for his red card as Meech was correctly dismissed and a penalty awarded.

There was then a five minute delay before the spot kick was taken as linesman Rob Thom had to get stripped on don the goalkeeping gloves with Diment making way.

The delay obviously didn't help the Saints experienced midfielder Wayne Behan whose kick was poor but nonetheless well saved by Thom.

The second-half began with Thom again performing heroics as he denied Simon Vincent with his legs in the 49th minute.

Lyme's best effort arrived just before the hour mark as Jack Durrant burst into the area before guiding a shot that beat Bandy but struck the inside of the far post before being hacked to safety.

Despite enjoying more possession in the remainder of the match, even with 10 men, the Seasiders failed to fashion any clear-cut opportunities although there were a couple of goalmouth scrambles.

There was drama at the death with Durrant clearly having his shirt pulled on the edge of the Saints' area.

But neither referee Macey or the Combe linesman spotted the incident

SHEPTON BEAU 1 CREWKERNE TOWN 3
CREWKERNE Town have emerged as genuine title-contenders after breezing past Shepton Beauchamp who may now have one eye on the drop zone after the emergence of Ilminster Reserves.

The visitors led through a George Miles at the turnaround and this was doubled by Jamie Spurdle.

Dan Smith pulled one back for Shepton only for a 30-yard thunderbolt from full-back Scott Barry to secure the Tigers' victory.

Division One

NETHERBURY 2 LYME REGIS RES 1
NETHERBURY kept on the coat tails of the top two with a deserved 2-1 win against Lyme Regis Reserves.

Despite the difference in current league positions, there is never usually much between the sides in this local derby and this proved the case last Saturday. Whether it was the bitterly cold conditions or the week's break, but for the first 30-35 minutes the Ambers could rarely string more than two passes together and instead it was the visitors who looked more comfortable on the ball and dangerous attacking down the flanks.

Netherbury finally started to warm up in the last 10 minutes and created some pressure of their own, only to go behind just before the break.

A free-kick out on the right flank, was expertly curled right into the six-yard box by Ally Rattenbury where it was flicked home by Ryan Gay for an OG.

After an honest and rather frank half-time team talk, the Ambers started the second-half impressively and deservedly equalised when Tom Franklin lofted in a cross that Richard Pincombe headed home.

With the Ambers now applying more pressure on the ball, Lyme found it harder to retain possession and were not as settled as in the first-half.

Netherbury clicked up a gear and started playing the ball on the deck, resulting in successes with John Kingston, Phil Hussey and Gary Corry all missing presentable goal scoring chances and finding Lyme gloveman Chris Higgs in fine form.

With 15 minutes remaining the ever-green Phil Hussey came up with the winner. Corry played a fantastic cross field pass which deceived Seasiders right back Fred Thomson and Hussey neatly controlled before finding the net via the far post.

"The second-half was much much better from us. These games are always tough and glad we have three points," said Ambers manager Andy Loudon. He picked out Richard Pincombe & Karl Ives as his topmen.

Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock was pleased with the performance of mid-fielder Jack Turner, up from the Bantams, and his back five of Higgs, Rattenbury, Thomson, Rob Larcombe and Wallace Blackmore.

◆ NETHERBURY FC have one of their biggest games for several years on Saturday when they entertain Bournemouth University Staff in the Semi Final of the Dorset Junior Cup (kick-off 2.30pm).

A club spokesman said: "Hot refreshments and food will be available and so players (old and new), supporters and anyone connected to the club, ALL please come along and support the Ambers to help us get into the final."

Division Two

CHARMOUTH 1 PYMORE 1
ADAM Cody-Boutcher's fifth goal in three games helped extended Pymore's unbeaten start to 2013.

Cody-Boutcher was first to react after Tim Hussey's free-kick had been parried by Charmouth 'keeper Mark Franklin in the 19th minute.

Dan Rendall levelled for the Robins on the half-hour.

Hussey thought he had notched the winner in the 70th minute only to see his effort ruled out for offside.

THORNCOMBE 3 UPLYME 2

UPLYME paid the penalty for squandering two early chances as they lost their unbeaten league record at Horseshoe Lane.

They did grab the early initiative when Jake Bearpark pounced to tap-in after a mix-up in the home defence.

Then the crucial misses as both Adam Neale and Ryan Prendeville were both guilty of wanting far too much time when well placed.

The Thorns came back into the game and levelled through Lee Fisher on the half-hour before Harry Housiene put them ahead.

But Uplyme then capitalised on some dozy defending as James Beddows cross found it's way to Neale who cracked home a neat half-volley.

The winner came in the 59th minute when Housiene smashed a shot high past Lloyd Cleal at his near post.

Neale missed a great chance to grab a point when his 89th minute header was aimed straight at Sochoh.

Uplyme manager Rob Coombe was realistic, he said: "The run had to come to an end at some point, we've just got to take our chances when they arrive."

Lyme Regis golf BY RICHARD JACKMAN Classy Carnell and Coalter

THE Spring sun eventually shone through especially on Brian Carnell who finished with +3 in the seniors' Briggs Trophy bogey competition.

In second place playing off six with a very respectable score of +1 was Keith Gibson who also birdied two of his shot holes, from Graham Langford and Geoff Marshall in 3rd and 4th respectively with -1.

Nine Juniors braved the freezing conditions on Saturday morning in a Stableford competition. Susie Coalter, the only girl in the field, prevailed over the boys with a stunning 46 points reducing her handicap by five shots to 31.

Second place went to David Lyon who carded a steady 35 points and Cameron Moss was third with 32 points beating Lewis Cottam on a count back.

Crabb continues her education with Chelsea

AFTER a long injury-plagued year at the Chelsea Academy, Beaminster footballer Ellie is now back in full training and playing matches after being offered a year's extension to her academy contract.

Ellie ruptured her anterior cruciate ligament and tore meniscus in late November 2011 and underwent two operations which saw her seen her spend five months on crutches at the start of 2012.

She resumed contact training in November and played her first match back against Reading in January. Since then she has resumed full match fitness, playing at centre back and right back and not missed a game since her return.

During her spell on the sidelines she still had to travel to and from Guildford in order to fulfil her academic studies and put herself in the frame to be nominated as the Student Union President for Merrist Wood College, Guildford College and Farnham College collectively.

She was elected the head of 13,000 students in April with the most votes ever recorded at the colleges cross-college election.

This motivated her to supply others with social activities and work at the Student Parliament to help improve the college for students.

Ellie officially started her role in September and last July completed her academic course, the BTEC Extended Diploma in Sport Level 3 which she achieved a Triple Distinction grade.

Ellie's new course with coaching company SCL involves three certificates in increasing participation in sport and her FA Level 2 coaching qualification.

In order to progress in this further, Ellie has also been gaining further qualifications in the industry with her referees badge; regularly refereeing the Bridport Under 10s and acting as Beaminster FC's assistant referee.

Ellie said: "I would like to thank the Beaminster Charities for their continued support throughout my time at the academy."

Burt turns tables on Cox

■ THE WINNERS: Members of both Loders A and B girls team's and Bridport Primary A and B boys team's with Beaminstor School's Headteacher Mike Best

MARCUS Burt (Loders) took revenge for his defeat in the first of the boys West Dorset Primary Schools Cross Country races at The Sir John Colfox School last month by winning the second race of the series held at Beaminstor School recently.

At Bridport it was Manny Cox (Bridport Primary) who led from the start, beating Burt into third place by a minute, but on a very flat and fast Beaminstor course, although incredibly wet, it was Burt who decided to take the race on from the front.

His bravery was rewarded as he held off Cox's challenge by four seconds in a tight finish, to win in a time of 6m 41secs, with Cole Lowden (Broad-windsor) just a second further back in third place.

Overall Bridport Primary (35pts) won by just one point over Broad-windsor (36pts) with Loders 3rd with 73pts.

In the girls race Olivia Willmore (Loders) who won the Colfox event as well as the Colmers Cluster race, went to the front from the start and held her position until the very end winning in 7m 02secs.

Maddy Herbert also from Loders followed her in 7m 25secs with Phoebe Clarke (Mrs Ethelston's) a further seven seconds back in 7m 32secs.

Loders 12pts won the overall team competition; Mrs Ethelston's (36pts) were second with Parrott & Axe (74pts).

The B team winners were Loders (girls) and Bridport Primary (boys), the same as the A team result, underlining those two schools strength in depth.

HOCKEY

Easy victory for Beaminstor

BEAMINSTOR 2 SALISBURY 3RDS 0

BEAMINSTOR had no problems overcoming a side that stood ten points and one place above them before start of play, showing how little there is between the sides in ability in Channel Division 1 of the West Clubs Women's Hockey League.

The Wiltshire side had beaten Beaminstor on the two occasions the sides have met before this season, but the West Dorset club took command from the start and scored inside two minutes when Bella Foot hammered home a cross from the right.

Salisbury apart from one or two good pieces of work by their experienced left-winger rarely troubled the home defence, whilst Beaminstor continued to create and miss a number of chances.

However on 28 minutes they deservedly doubled their lead when Phoebe Stewart cut in from the left to score with a shot from a very acute angle.

The second half was very mundane with neither side really looking like scoring, and it wasn't until 17 minutes from time that Beaminstor 'keeper Lisa Condliffe was called into action; having to get down to save at the near post.

Soon after she left an angled shot from outside the D but it hit the post and became live, but fortunately a Salisbury attacker was also surprised and put her shot wide of goal.

Becky Early deserved a goal for a strong run through the middle of the visiting defence beating three players but then pushed her shot the wrong side of the upright, before a last minute short corner routine between Julia May and Danni Donovan saw the former shoot just wide of the post.

The win keeps Beaminstor in fourth place and means victory over Yeovil & Sherborne 3rds this Saturday would secure their league status.

BOWLS H win battle of the Titans

THE battle of the Titans at the head of Bridport Bowling Club's short mat league was won by Team H (Sam Dunn, Lucy and Derek Crocker, Derek Hoskins and Geoff Rumsey) who triumphed over Team B (Sheila Douglas, Chris Taylor, Steve Bartlett, Chris and David Robbins, Pauline and Ian Newitt) 9-3, 4-7, 8-3 to regain the top spot.

Team D (Jerry Apted, Sue Fox, Peter Billett, Delphine and Billy Street) consolidated their position in third taking five points 8-7, 7-6, 4-6 from Team E.

Team G (Alan Brown, Sylvia Smith, John Ireland and Les Brake) moved one place up the table with a haul of six points from their game with Team F 10-5, 14-5, 3-5.

Although Team A (Jill Harding, Joan and David Smith, Dinah Wilson, Bob Seadon and Rosemary Brooks) shared the eight points with Team C (Margaret Fiffeld, Thelma Pratt, MacArthurs, Christine and Brian Neale) 5-10, 5-7, 13-1, they were unable to move from their position of seventh.

Parker holds his nerve

BRIDPORT Men's teams finished their Wessex League fixtures with a very credible four-point haul against the Bournemouth Royals.

Stars of the show were the home rink of David Conroy, Brian Galpin, Bob Taylor and Ivor Parker facing one of the best rinks to visit Bridport this year, found themselves 7-14 down at one stage.

But with Galpin, who plays for the Ecstasy of Gold side, producing some real nuggets on the jack, they fought their way back to 15-15 with one end remaining. Parker found himself two shots down with just two woods left, but played the best pressure wood of the season to push out the shot wood and stay on the jack for a 16-15 win.

Brian Baker, Max Dare, Keith Gentry and Ken Enticott were the other points winners 21-14, Gentry capping his fine season with another great display and Enticott, the former Liberty Trophy Star, turning back the clock to play vital woods when in trouble.

At Bournemouth Arthur Stone, Mel Griffiths, Martin Grier and Chris Thorne, and Dave Roberts, Keith Brooks, Brian Morgan and Brian Rumble competed well, before going down 15-27 respectively to give Bournemouth the extra eight points for an overall win.

BEES NEWS

Bridport 4 Hallen 3 TOOLSTATION PREMIER DIV - ATT: 86 Saturday, February 23rd

BRIDPORT finally got the win they have been threatening when they beat high riding Hallen 4-3 at St Mary's Field.

A controversial winning goal from Dan Wise gave the Bees victory in a game that ebbed and flowed as they achieved their first league win in 11 games.

Playing their third home game of the week following two draws in which they might well have easily taken all six points, Bridport were anxious to take all three points.

But it was Hallen that started better with Sam Filkins doing well to hold Claran Greening's header before Billy George shot wide.

However, on eight minutes Bridport went ahead with Dan Wise scoring his 100th goal for the club.

Matt Condliffe played in Ryan Dovell who held the ball up well before laying it back into the path of Wise who produced one of his pile drivers from just inside the box.

Filkins then did brilliantly to turn Andy Cook's effort over the bar, before Hallen equalised on the half hour from a corner when the giant Ashley Bennett climbed highest to head past Filkins with Bridport a man short while Jamie Symes was off the field receiving attention.

Both sides went close before Dovell restored Bridport's lead five minutes before the interval when he glanced home Wise's free-kick from wide on the touchline.

For the second Saturday running the Bees scored very quickly after the restart.

Wise's corner hit with pace, eluded everyone but The Armadillos right back Ben Willshire who could not avoid it hitting his thigh and bouncing in to give Bridport a 3-1 lead.

However Hallen did not give up, and soon after reduced the deficit when the Bridport defence for once failed to close down Thomas Collett who poked the ball past Filkins after the ball was helped on from a throw-in.

Three minutes later they had drawn level again when James Derosa bulletted home a header from a corner.

Hallen's Cory Simpson was then perhaps fortunate not to be booked when he followed in on a cross and caught Filkins on the head and hand. Thankfully he recovered after treatment.

Once again the game was played at a high tempo with Bridport having the better of the opening exchanges. Bridport came within a whisker of scoring on 24 minutes following a good run by Ryan Dovell down the right. His cross was met by Chris Clarke at the near post but his angled volley just cleared the crossbar.

Brislington, although not a big side, took no prisoners as they tried to stem Bridport's advances, and both Niekell Plummer and Josh Dyer were spoken to for heavy tackles on Michael Hailu and Chris Luke.

Matt Condliffe was particularly lively in this spell and forced Knappman to defend rather attack.

Following two runs and crosses that caused some panic in the Foxes defence, he was then just too high with a shot following Dan Wise's corner.

Ref Iain Parsons finally lost patience with the visitors' heavy-handed tactics and booked James Peart for a foul on Hailu.

Brislington had to wait until the 40th minute before their first real meaningful attack on the Bees goal.

Adam Stordy missed his tackle allowing Alex Lambert to cross low into the box where the ball was finally scrambled away.

Bridport however finished the half in a flourish.

Jamie Symes headed Wise's long free-kick back into the danger area where Dovell snuck in at the near post.

Unfortunately his deft header struck 'keeper Chris Humphries in the chest. Brislington were then grateful for their skipper Jason Hughes' long legs that just got a touch on the ball to divert Ben Clarke's shot just wide.

The visitors came out with more determination at the start of the second-half and took control, although like Bridport they failed to really test the keeper.

Hughes was unlucky with a header from a corner that Hailu hacked off the line.

Their best chance of the match fell to Luke Meecher on 64 minutes who was presented with a free header from Hughes' cross that he sent over the angle of the goal frame.

The Bees weathered the storm however and Dovell might have done better than scuff Luke's cross, the ball looping up in the air and dropping just wide of the post.

Symes then had a shot charged down before he and Wise fired in crosses that only needed a foot to

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Tragedy strikes Buckler's yard again

TRAGEDY has struck Bob Buckler's yard for the second time this season when Malin Head had to be put down after stumbling and breaking his pelvis when poised to win the 32Red.com Handicap Chase at Cheltenham on Saturday.

The eight-year-old who had been backed down to 2/1 favourite following his return to form looked as if he would win or indeed be involved in the finish having provided a faultless show of jumping as they approached the second last.

However it would appear his back legs did the splits as he landed and he stumbled unseating Andrew Glassonbury.

Buckler was too upset to talk much about the incident that was witnessed by a number of the Strictly Come Racing syndicate who owned him.

There was also sadness tinged with relief and pride in the yard, at the retirement of The Sawyer, one of the best horses that Buckler has trained.

Winner of £216,000 of prize money over his 60-race career, the 13-year-old had to concede to old age after trailing in well down the field in the Jerry Moynihan Memorial Handicap Chase at Towcester on Sunday.

Leading early on he dropped back as the pace increased, and despite another impeccable bout of jumping Glassonbury told Buckler after that: "Like you Bob, age is catching up with him".

A winner on his debut almost nine years ago in a bumper on the £216,000 Northamptonshire course, he won seven races; the last the Betfair Trophy Handicap Chase at Cheltenham two years ago.

■ A WINNER: The Sawyer on his way to winning the Betfair Trophy Handicap Chase at Cheltenham in 2010

He was known for his impeccable jumping that was borne out by the fact he only fell once in his career in the John Smith's Topham Chase at Aintree in 2009.

It is not sure what he will do in retirement, he could go hunting or perhaps novice point-to-point.

turn them in, and Wise shot wide from Dovell's cut back.

Brislington might have sneaked a goal they didn't deserve on 78 minutes when Dyer's corner hit sub Russell Legg and rebounded against his own crossbar, but fortunately it dropped into Lillington's hands.

Both sides continued to probe, but conscious that a point was important to both, the game ran its course without much more drama.

If it had been a boxing match, Bridport would have got the decision.

Indeed on their first-half showing the ref might have already stopped the fight at the interval.

3rds benefit from frozen pitch

BRIDPORT 3RDS 3 SWANAGE & RES 0

A FROZEN pitch at Shaftesbury Town meant the cancellation of Bridport Reserves game, and resulted in Andy Hitchcock being able to bolster his threadbare side.

Shane Evans who has just recovered from a groin strain got 90 minutes under his belt, whilst Reserve regulars Sam Day and Jack Scovell also played. As a result the Bees had too much ammunition for their opponents and cruised through the match.

Ali Kamara looked to be back to his best alongside the reliable Chris Symes up front, whilst Jamie Legg gave a faultless display in defence.

Symes opened the scoring, finishing with aplomb after slipping the Swans' defence.

He might have bagged a second but was denied by a superb save from the Swans keeper who got across to the top corner to turn his header from Day's pinpoint cross over the bar.

Just before half-time Evans appeared at the far post to head home Ashley Walkey's free-kick to double the Bees advantage.

Kamara completed the scoring in the second half when he slammed the ball home after the visitors' defence failed to clear Symes' cut back after he had rounded the keeper.

The score could have been bigger; Scovell missing two one-on-ones in the second-half, but with hardly any pressure exerted on the Bees defence it didn't matter.

Manager Andy Hitchcock said: "We were never really under any pressure at any time and apart from a couple of corners we dominated the game."

"It was refreshing to have the extra input from the senior players which made it that much easier."

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sport round-up

Seasiders scuppered

AFTER issuing a rallying call last week Karl Diment saw his Lyme Regis side slip further down the Perry Street League Premier Division pecking after Saturday's 1-0 home defeat at the hands of Combe Reserves.

It may well be that Lyme can still string a run together as this season's title race seems certain to have plenty of more twists and turns ahead in the coming weeks.

A nightmare opening 34 minutes saw Jay Stewart put Combe ahead and the Seasiders reduced to 10 men after goalkeeper Will Meech was sent-off for a last man foul. However, substitute gloveman Rob Thom did well to save the resulting penalty from Wayne Behan.

Try as they might Lyme, admittedly without five injured or ill regulars, hit the woodwork twice and had a clear-cut late penalty appeal turned down but couldn't fashion an equaliser and were later dismayed to hear news of victories for rivals Crewkerne Town and Beaminster.

Diment will attempt to raise the team's spirits for Saturday's visit by improving Ilminster Town Reserves with a place in the Challenge cup final, where Winsham United lay in wait, the prize for the winners.

In division One Lyme Regis Reserves went down 2-1 at promotion-chasers Netherbury. Gerard Hitchcock's side, despite looking good defensively, are misfiring going forward and have a tough fight on their hands as they are to escape the drop zone.

The Reserves head off north to Barington at the weekend.

Meanwhile the Bantams' scheduled visit by Luso-Chard was postponed with the Woodroffe school pitch unplayable.

Player-manager Chris Simpson takes his side off to face Drimpton on Saturday.

It was a black day for Uplyme too with both teams beaten 3-2. The Swallows first team saw their unbeaten league record evaporate at Thorncombe while Andy Cleere's Reserves were knocked out of the Kenny Hodges cup by fellow Devonians Farway United Reserves.

The first team turn their attention to retaining the Tommy Tabberer cup at the weekend when they travel to Ilminster Colts for a quarter-final tie.

Charmouth earned a valuable division two point with Dan Rendall on target in a 1-1 draw with visiting Pymore. The Robins entertain Crewkerne Rangers on Saturday.
